MATRIMONIAL.

FITHIAN-WEBB.

Love, that divine sentiment that bridges all obstacles and is the foundation of all earthly happiness found expression Wednesday at Lexington, when Rev. Charles Lee Reynolds pronounced the ceremony that united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Georgie Fithian and Charles Daugherty Webb, both of this city.

The wedding was the happy culmination of several years' courtship, they being sweethearts since their early school days. The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Joseph Fithian and a sister of Miss Nellie Fithian and Dr. Frank Fithian.

Raised in a home of culture and refinement with the advantages of an excellent education, she is one of Paris' most accomplished and charming young women. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Mary C. Webb and a brother of Councilman W. H. Webb, and Conductor Frank P. Webb, of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and was formerly Police Judge of the city of Paris.

During his incumbency of his office he read law and was admitted to practice at the Paris bar. He is now city editor of the News and holds the office of City Assessor. Judge Webb has a wide acquaintance in Central Kentucky, with a legion of friends who will rejoice to know he has taken a life partner.

The happy couple went to Cincinnati for a short bridal trip and upon their return will reside at the home of the bride, on Pleasant street.

—W. T. Turner and Mrs. Drusilla Allender, an attractive couple from Harrison county, were granted a marriage license yesterday by County Clerk Paton. They were married by Judge Denis Dundon.

Efficacy of Prayer Fails.

For the first time during the balloting for United States Senator, the joint assembly was opened Wednesday with prayer. The divine supplication was delivered by the Rev. J. W. Brown, of the Shaker Methodist church, of Covington, but was ineffective, the insurgent Democrats proving immovable. The ballot resulted as follows: Beckham, 53; Bradley, 58; Campbell, 5; Watterson, 1; Allen, 1; necessary to elect, 63.

Yesterday the vote was as follows: Beckham, 59; Bradley, 58; Campbell, 5; Allen, 1; Blackburn, 1; necessary to elect, 63.

The only change in the ballot was Wheeler Campbell's switch from Watterson to Blackburn.

City Council Meets.

With Mayor O'Brien presiding, the City Council met last night. The new school bonds were approved and the report of Treasurer Geo. B. Alexander produced for ninety bonds of the value of $500 each. The bonds will be handed to the purchasers today and the amount of $45,000 with accrued interest, amounting to $443 will be turned over to the city.

Chairman Parrish, of the Finance Committee was authorized by the Council to pay the money over to the School Board, less $3,000 already advanced.

A building permit was granted to A. E. Lovell to erect a cottage on Henderson street, to cost $1,200.

Chairman Parrish presented the financial report of the city for the year closing Dec. 31, 1907, which was read and approved. The report was an excellent one and showed a net balance in the general fund of nearly $4,000.

Buggy Demolished.

In a runaway accident which occurred Wednesday, near the plant of the Paris Distilling Company, near Paris, on the North Middletown pike, a buggy driven by Owen Gibson, carrier on Rural Route No. 1, North Middletown, Ky., was demolished by colliding with a telephone post. Mr. Gibson was enroute to Paris, accompanied by Mrs. Mamie Skillman, wife of Police Judge C. M. Skillman, of North Middletown.

As they were coming down the hill near the distillery the horse became unmanageable and started at break-neck speed, Mr. Gibson steering the animal against the post with the above result. Mrs. Skillman emerged from the wreck of the vehicle unhurt and later was driven to the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Mappin, in South Paris. Mr. Gibson suffered several bruises and scratches as well as a sprained ankle, which was treated by Drs. Kenney and Dudley.

Fugitive Surrendered.

Tired of being a fugitive from justice, Pearl Hannan, a negro, appeared at the door of the Bourbon county jail yesterday and surrendered himself to Jailer George W. Judy. Jailer Judy was unaware of any crime the negro had committed but took him at his word and placed him behind the bars. Upon investigation it was ascertained that Hannan was wanted for cutting John Carter, another negro, the difficulty occurring in April. Hannan was taken before Judge Dundon and his trial set for hearing this morning at 10 o'clock.

Will Protest.

At the suggestion of Col. E. F. Clay, a meeting of the thoroughbred breeders of Central Kentucky and all other citizens interested in the thoroughbred horse was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Oridary of the Phoenix Hotel.

The object of the meeting was to take action with reference to sending representatives of Kentucky's thoroughbred interests to New York to appear before the Legislature to endeavor to prevent a repeal of the Percy-Gray law.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of Ven. Ex. directed to me which issued from the Clerk's Office of the Bourbon Circuit Court, in favor of W. H. Stephenson against Trustees M. E. Church, Little Rock, I will on

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.ONE YEAR, $5.00 | SIX MONTHS, $3.00
PAYABLE IN ADVANCEMr. Bryan's Opinions.

The plan of guaranteed bank deposits has probably found favor, among all classes of people and irrespective of political affiliation, more rapidly than any other public question.

The new State of Oklahoma has already enacted a law taxing State banks, the fund thus accumulated to be used in paying the depositors of any State bank that from any cause becomes unable to meet its obligations. A special session of the Kansas legislature has been called for the purpose of enacting legislation similar to the Oklahoma plan. The governor of Nebraska is considering the advisability of calling a special session of the legislature on account of the growing belief among the people that protection to bank depositors in the form of State or Federal guarantees of their deposits will stop the hoarding of money, bring into circulation sufficient currency to conduct the business of the country, and prevent a recurrence of such disastrous panics as the one through which we are now passing.

Mr. Bryan has been an advocate of a law guaranteeing deposits in State and national banks since 1893. The legislature of Ohio has adopted a joint resolution inviting Mr. Bryan to address its members in joint session February 18, 1908, on the subject of Guaranteed Bank Deposits.

Mr. Bryan, in discussing the tariff question, insists that residents of the United States should be permitted to buy home-made goods at home at as low a price as the foreigner can buy American-made goods abroad. He also insists that our government should be by and for the people as a whole, rather than by and for the trusts, and administered in the interest of a few beneficiaries of the trust system. He believes that national legislation for the purpose of better regulation and control of interstate commerce and common carriers should supplement state legislation, and not be a substitute for state legislation.

Mr. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, reflects his opinions each week on questions of public importance and in its columns may also be found his magazine articles, public speeches, addresses and lectures, which are referred to in the daily press from day to day.

If you are interested in political questions, if you desire to keep in touch with the progress of the campaign and to read Mr. Bryan's campaign speeches send sixty cents to The Commoner, and the paper will be sent to your each week until the close of the next Presidential campaign.

Postoffice money order, currency or stamps will be accepted. Only sixty cents. Address The Commoner, Lincoln, Neb.

The Bourbon News and The Commoner from now until Jan. 1, 1909, for $2.00.

Up-to-Date Postmaster.

Our up-to-date Postmaster, J. L. Earlywine, has organized a new system at the postoffice which has only recently been adopted in the larger offices in the country. It is as follows:

Whenever a letter is received by the Mailing Clerk on duty, which is not addressed to street or Rural Route and is not known by the clerk handling same, it is placed in what is known as the Nixie Box. Into this box every carrier, rural and city, looks before he goes out on his trip, and if any letters are known to him, he takes it out. At 10:30 every morning, after all the carriers have gone out, the letters so remaining in the Nixie Box as listed and posted in the postoffice lobby where the public can see them every day.

By this means many letters are delivered which otherwise would be either advertised or returned to writer.

Hargis Me! Death Near Scene of Three Assassinations.

Standing in the same building from which he had witnessed the killing of James B. Marcum and James Cockrell, and within seventy feet of the scenes of the assassinations of Marcum, Cockrell and Dr. B. D. Cox, all charged with which murders he was charged with having procured, was James Hargis when shot down in his store at Jackson, Mo. Not only was Judge Hargis killed so near to the spots where his three alleged victims met a similar fate, but his last words of "Oh, mercy," were the same as uttered by Marcum, Cockrell and Cox, as they fell victims to the assassins' bullets, alleged to have been fired at the instance of the feud leader, whose life was snuffed out in the twinkling of an eye, by his only son, Beach Hargis.

Marked for Death.

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me gain 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mr. Bryan on the Message.

It is a brave message that the President sent to Congress last Friday, and is needed at this time. All friends of reform have reason to rejoice that the President has used his high position to call attention to the wrongs that need to be remedied. He has discovered the running sore in our national life. He has pointed out the corrupting influences that flow from predatory wealth and the monopolistic enterprises which have given unearned riches to the few, who, by controlling the great industries of the nation have levied tribute on the whole country.

His warnings are entirely in harmony with the warnings which Democrats have been uttering for more than a decade, and I hope that the Democrats in the Senate and the House will promptly challenge the Republicans to meet the issues that have been presented by the President.

There ought to be enough Republicans in the two Houses to join with the Democrats and insure some remedial legislation at this session. If there be none the public ought to know it, so that when the next national Republican convention endorses the present administration the hypocrisy of the endorsement will be understood. The President has discussed the relative shares of the State and of the Nation. We hope that in the measures which may be introduced in response to this appeal there will be no attempt to take from the States any power that they now have.

The Democrats are in favor of the present power vested in the Congress, but they want the national remedies added to the state remedies and not substituted for them. If the President's republican friends will join with the democrats in devising legislation which will be effective and yet within the recognized constitutional power of congress, great good may be accomplished before Congress adjourns.

The President has issued a call to arms. Now let the battle begin and we will soon be able to pick out the purchased newspapers and the purchased legislators described by the President, but not specifically named.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—Clover hay is selling higher than timothy hay on the Paris market. The former is bringing $14 per ton in baled form and the latter $11. Timothy hay, in the rick and stack, where it is not damaged by weather, is selling in the field at $8.50 to $9 per ton.

—No crop in 1908 and $50,000 to finance the 1907 crop is the situation in Montgomery county. Three banks in Mt. Sterling will advance the money and three warehouses have been secured in which to store the tobacco. That ends the troubles in that section.

Mail Subscribers Must Pay in Advance.

The United States Postoffice Department has issued an order, No. 907, dated December 4, 1907, amending the postal regulations, which will hereafter compel newspapers to enforce business principles in their circulation department and probably reduce the press-room waste that has cut some figure in the recent 50 per cent. advance in the price of white paper.

The new order is intended to reduce the volume of second-class mail matter made up of newspapers and magazines, which the government now carries at one cent a pound, entailing a big annual loss to the postoffice department. It practically limits the use of the mails at these cheap postage rates to papers sent to bona-fide subscribers, paid in advance, and publishers will be fined four cents for every pound of mail sent out in violation of the regulations.

In order that the new rule may not be harsh in its application, the postoffice department has provided that a reasonable time shall be allowed to publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions before cutting off subscribers whose time has expired or who are in arrears. This time allowed is fixed at months 3 for daily papers, for 9 months for semi-weekly papers, and for 4 months for monthly magazines.

Under the operation of this rule publishers will find an amount equal to the transient postage rates, four cents a pound, for every daily newspaper sent to a subscriber over three months in arrears and for every semi-weekly newspaper sent to a subscriber nine months in arrears.

Publishers generally will, we believe, be glad that this regulation has been made by the Postoffice Department, as it will effectually settle the question whether mail subscribers should be cut off at the expiration of their subscriptions. In the past it often happened that subscribers who were carried over the time for which they had paid complained because they were not discontinued, while others who were promptly cut off at expiration took offense and felt that this was an imputation on their honesty or ability to pay.

The new regulation establishes for the future a business-like custom that it is fair to publishers and subscribers, and relieves the matter of all embarrassment to either side.

There is no doubt that the old custom was abused by publishers and subscribers, by the former in sending papers and bills to people who wished to discontinue and by the latter in accepting and reading papers and then refusing to pay for the ground that the subscription had expired.

In compliance with the new law we will at once send out bills and renewal notices to all mail subscribers who may be in arrears, and hopes to have prompt responses in order that there may be no violation on our part. In the past we have never used these columns to urge payment of subscriptions or arrearages, leaving such business details to the circulation department, but we believe the new postal regulations, requiring that all subscribers be cut off if nine months in arrears, on penalty of forfeiture of second-class postage privileges, justifies this explanation, which will be run in several issues in order that all our mail subscribers may understand the new order of things.

Her Birthday Present.

By JANE LUDLUM LEE.

Copyrighted, 1907, by Homer Sprague.

Robertson, the jail breaker, handcuff king and magician, was in town. Bill-posters were everywhere announcing his arrival at Peck's Vaudeville theater, telling of the wonderful feats he would perform. Standing before one of these posters was a pale faced, tired girl on her way home from the office. It was incredible to think that a man could do the things advertised—to see a man break out of jail, to unlock the dreaded handcuffs before your very eyes! Oh, no; it was too wonderful to believe! She had often watched a crowd of urchins following a man who had been arrested and once had seen him taken to the lockup, but that a man could get out of his own free will—this seemed incredible.

She gave a final look at the picture of the man on the poster, tucked her novel tightly under her arm and moved slowly toward home. It was her

"I WANT TO GO HOME. PLEASE TAKE ME." birthday, and her mother had given her a dollar to buy herself a present. She still had the dollar, and the thought occurred to her that she could take a girl friend to the vaudeville tonight and see this wonderful man. Then she recalled that her mother objected to girls going to the theater alone. After eating her dinner she decided that she was too tired. She would stay at home.

The ringing of the doorbell after dinner aroused her from her lethargy. She went to the door and opened it. "Hello, Janet?"

"Why, Billy, won't you come in, or shall we sit on the stoop? It's pretty warm inside."

"I came around to see if you would go with me to Peck's Vaudeville tonight. The handcuff king is there, you know, and today is your birthday."

"Oh, Billy, will you really take me? I've been longing to go ever since I read about him. You sit here on the stoop, and I'll be ready in a jiffy."

Billy sat down to wait, and Janet was soon in the midst of her toilet. She donned her best brown frock and flower trimmed hat because she noticed that Billy had put on his best gray suit and had his cane with him. They found the theater packed and were fortunate in securing two balcony seats. The noisy songs and tire-some dialogues which came before the handcuff king's appearance on the bill seemed interminable. No. 7 finally appeared—his number. He came out—not the strong, big man she had pictured, but a little, muscular foreigner, and they chained him hand and foot, locked and relocked the leg irons and handcuffs on and left him there to get out as best he could.

Janet hung over the balcony rail, and Billy's eyes feasted on the bright and happy face beside him. The little fellow on the stage began his act. Slowly twisting, turning and writhing, seemingly in great pain, for several moments he made no headway.

"Billy, he is being hurt! Why don't some one help him?" Janet implored.

"Of course it hurts him, but no one can help him. He must get out alone."

"Yes, but that's cruel. Just see the veins in his arms! Oh, Billy, I can't stand it to see a poor man suffer so! Look, Billy! His face is getting redder and redder every minute!" she cried as she hid her face in her hands.

There was a deathlike silence in the house. You could hear a pin drop in the awful stillness in which the man held the audience. Janet peeked out between her fingers, but dared not really look. Billy leaned a little closer and gave her arm a reassuring pat. It encouraged her to speak. Leaning close to him, she whispered:

"Billy, I'm ashamed to tell you, but I want to go home. Please take me. I'm so frightened."

"Why, of course, little girl, but I thought you wanted to see him get loose."

"I—I didn't know it would hurt him," she whispered.

Out in the street, with a tight hold on his arm, her fear left her, and when Billy suggested Green's for a plate of ice cream she readily agreed. Away from the atmosphere of the theater and the picture of that writhing, suffering man she was once more herself. Suddenly Janet stopped eating, her eyes stared straight ahead, and instinctively Billy turned to see who had attracted her attention. It was the handcuff king, not a king after all; just a mortal man thirsting for a dish of ice cream.

"Oh, Billy, I'm so glad he got out. I never could have slept with the picture of that poor man in chains."

"Of course he got out, you silly child. He always does. Janet, you women are a funny lot. You never know what you want. I came home this afternoon and passed you as you were standing there gazing at the billboard. I thought you wanted to see this man do these wonderful things, and that is why I took you. Guess you don't like my present to you—do you?"

"Isn't it so, Billy? All my life I have been planning to do things, and when the time comes to do them my ambition is gone. I long for something different—perhaps something I ought not to have. Then when I get it I don't want it. It's just as if I reached out and touched a passing bubble, and, at my touch, it burst. Yet there is always that longing in my heart for an unknown something, and it lurks there still."

"Janet, little girl, my present to you was not much of a success. I wanted to make you happy, and I only succeeded in frightening you. Suppose we turn the tables and you give me a present?"

"Why, I never heard of a girl giving a present to some one else on her own birthday. What under the sun do you mean?"

"I mean this, dear. I want a present that only you can give me. It's a big, precious present. You say you don't know what you long for, but I know what I am reaching for, and that something is you, Janet. Will you give yourself to me, a present to keep always and to love forever?"

"Billy, that waitress heard every word you said. It's not fair to propose to a girl in an ice cream parlor. I wouldn't dare say 'No' if I wanted to."

"Do you want to say 'No,' Janet?" almost whispered Billy.

"Well, to be perfectly honest, I don't think I do. Billy, maybe, after all, it's you I'm longing for, maybe it's you I've been reaching out for all the time. I guess it must be, Billy, dear, because I have been happier in these past few minutes than I've ever been in all my life before. If you'll take me, Billy, I'm yours."

Deer Shooting Extraordinary.

"The most extraordinary deer shooting I recall," said a hunter, "was up in Aroostook county, Me., one winter. I was new to the business then. The guide posted me behind a cold rock, a very cold rock, near a runway, with instructions to shoot the deer that came my way. He was to take his post downstream a bit, and if I heard several quick shots I was to leave my lair and come to his."

"An hour had passed, the coldest hour I ever spent, with nothing to break the monotony of white snow and black trees. Then I heard a shot. I waited, and then heard another shot and another. Finally there were so many reports that I started for the guide's station. Just as I reached him he fired three times in quick succession through a lane in the trees."

"Got anything?" I inquired excitedly. "Blast him, no!" he answered. "I've fired thirteen times at the same old buck, and every time I fire he dodges and comes up again like a duck in a shooting gallery."

"We went down to see what was the explanation of this curious maneuver of the deer, and—well, you won't believe me anyway, but when we reached the spot there were thirteen deer piled up as neatly as a market man could have done it, every one shot in the right fore shoulder."

"That lane in the trees opened on a runway, and the deer happened to be using it; that's all."

"What! You don't believe it? Well, neither do I!"—New York Times.

A Cautious Musician.

There was a careful old man—a clerk he was—who played the flute. The old man entered a music shop one day, opened a large book of music and laid it on a shelf before him in an out of the way corner.

Then he took his flute out of his coat tall pocket, screwed it together and began to play softly the first tune in the book.

When he finished the first tune he turned the page and played the second. Then he played the third. At the end of half an hour he was still playing on. The shopman then approached and said civilly:

"Do you think the book will suit you, sir?"

"I don't know," said the old man. "I have only played half the tunes."

And he resumed his subdued tooting. —Pearson's Weekly.

Backed Both Ways.

The race was over, the flag hoisted and the crowd of fortunates who had backed the winner had gathered around the bookmakers to receive their winnings.

One vacant looking individual, who was evidently "seeing life" for the first time, claimed $1.

"What did you back?" asked the fat faced man with the big waist, who was standing on a stool.

"Silver Cloud," replied the vacant one.

"Why, man alive," yelled the man with the satchel, "that horse turned back and finished at the starting post!"

"I know that," said the other, "but didn't I back the horse both ways?" There was a dull thud on the green-sward, and an anxious crowd gathered. The man with the big waist had fainted. —London Mail.

DEATHS.

GALBRAITH.

—Mrs. Galbraith, aged 46 years, wife of H. A. Galbraith, died Monday night of pneumonia, at the family residence in East Paris. She is survived by her husband and five children. The funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., at the residence services by Elder Carey E. Morgan. Interment took place in the Paris cemetery.

The pall-bearers were A. W. Cottingham, J. J. McClintock, Dr. Wm. Kenney, Henry Galbraith, Clarence Argo, Chas. Doyle.

SLOAN.

—William Sloan, aged about 75, died at his home on the Peacock turnpike, near Paris, Monday night. He had been in feeble health for several months. The deceased was a former gallant Confederate soldier. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Baker Sloan.

The funeral services were held at the grave in the Paris cemetery, Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. J. P. Strother.

The pall-bearers were W. R. Scott, Robert Turner, H. O. James, Harry Holt, Roy Turner, Henry Ingels, W. G. Talbott and John Johnson.

BEALERT.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Bealert, one of Bourbon's oldest citizens, passed away at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at her residence on the Bethlehem pike in the ninety-second year of her age. Mrs. Bealert came of a long lived family, her mother, Mrs. Shrader, dying at the advanced age of ninety-nine years, while her brother, the late James Shrader, passed away at the age of eighty-three.

Mrs. Bealert was an aunt of Mrs. J. P. Howell and Mrs. Mary Stivers, of this city. She was the widow of John Bealert and is survived by four sons, Ray Bealert and Burt Bealert, of Missouri; Sherman Bealert and John Bealert, and five daughters, Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. John Neal, Misses Nannie and Lizzie Bealert, all of Bourbon, and Mrs. Henry Mitchell, of Lexington.

Mrs. Bealert was a native of Bourbon and was perhaps the oldest member of the Christian church in the county, having united with the church more than three-quarters of a century ago.

The funeral services took place from the grave in the Paris cemetery yesterday at 3 o'clock p. m. and were conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. The pall-bearers were as follows: J. Frank Hall, C. V. Higgins, Lloyd Ashurst, J. H. Stivers, T. M. Hall and A. J. Austin.

MARGOLEN.

One of Paris' Most Progressive Industries — Important for the Farmers of Bourbon.

The Paris Creamery, located in the Massie Addition, near the Ice Plant, will begin operations on March 3. It is hoped and urged that the good people of Paris and county will be present at the creamery on that day, and it is especially urged that everyone bring to the Creamery on that day all the good, sweet milk it is possible to procure, to use in the trial test of the Creamery machinery. This is a new industry in Bourbon and should interest everyone; in some counties it has already rapidly grown to be a most important business.

The owners of cows are insured a certain market and the highest market price for all the good milk that can be furnished.

The Paris Creamery will have an expert here by Feb. 19, to visit the farmers and explain to them anything they wish to learn about the operation of the business.

It is again urged that everyone who can will please be present on March 3, and they are asked to bring as much milk as they can get. The wives of farmers, and the ladies who are interested in the Creamery are invited to be present.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

THEATRICAL.

"TEMPEST AND SUNSHINE."

The appearance of Mary J. Holmes' delightful novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," dramatization by Lem B. Parker, is an event that should be looked forward to with interest by our theatre goers. The scenery is beautiful, everything used in the representation being carried by the company. The costumes are of the fashion of 1850 which is the period of the play. Beautiful Southern melodies are introduced throughout the play with great effect. The story is both strong and interesting, and is relieved with much comedy which is contributed by the darky servants as a special entertainment for their masters and mistresses, who are of the Southern aristocracy.

"Tempest and Sunshine" is one of the big successes of recent years and no one who enjoys a first-class play, presented in a first-class manner should fail to see "Tempest and Sunshine" to be seen at the Paris Grand on Thursday, Feb. 20.

Testing Hemp Break.

Geo. E. Worth, of Rochester, N.Y., accompanied by his two brothers-in-law, J. R. Reed, of the same city, and Horace E. Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va., formerly of this city, son of Prof. J. W. Fox, and brother of the noted novelist, John Fox, are registered at the Windsor Hotel.

They are here to test a new hemp breaking machine of which Mr. Worth is the inventor. The machine is at the warehouses of Chas. S. Brent & Bro., and as soon as settled weather conditions set in it will be given a final test.

Will Protect Tobacco Beds.

A prominent farmer near Clintonville, this county, who does not care to divulge his name and who is determined to grow a crop of tobacco has advertised for an expert electrician to plant wires around through his tobacco beds to be connected with wire supplied by thirty dry batteries. Whether such means of protecting their tobacco beds will be resorted to by other independent growers has as yet not come to light.

There is not a farmer or grower of tobacco in this county, identified with the Equity movement, who would for a moment wink at the destruction of his neighbor's tobacco beds though that neighbor declines to join the majority in an effort to cut out the crop, and the apparent alarm about the safety of tobacco beds is believed to be entirely without foundation.

Has Subsidied.

The alarm occasioned by an epidemic of small pox in a light form in the edge of Bourbon and Scott counties near Centerville, has about subsided, no new cases developing since January 15.

A total of twenty-three cases, none of which were serious developed all of whom are now convalescent sufficiently to dispense with the services of a physician. Doctors Creason and Pack, assisted by the health officers of Bourbon and Scott counties looked after the afflicted under the direction of the health officers.

Everyone for miles around were vaccinated, red flags were displayed from the homes of the afflicted. Everything was done from a scientific standpoint to eradicate the disease, and to Dr. J. A. Creason, of Centerville, is largely due the credit that no lives were lost and the disease held in check and finally stamped out.

Severely Scalded.

While engaged in slaughtering hogs at the slaughter house of Baldwin Bros., Ellis Parker, colored while attempting to draw a hog upon the platform, lost his hold and fell backwards into the scalding trough.

A splash, followed by a shriek of pain, told his companions of his awful plight. They rushed to his rescue and dragged him from the box. The scalding water extended over his body from his knees to his neck, including his hands and arms. Physicians were sent for and everything done to relieve his intense suffering. The flesh was scalded, the skin peeling off freely.

Parker has been unfortunate—a runaway horse dragging him a considerable distance over the street. He was the victim of a stray bullet in a street and has been in several other accidents, the last of which, however, may prove fatal.

—At Lexington, on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Lucy Mann Thompson, accompanied by Miss Nannie Wilson of this city, gave a song recital before the Department of Literature of the Woman's Club of Central Kentucky. Mrs. Thompson is a pupil of Prof. Harry Rupert Carr of the Conservatory of Music of Cincinnati O., and has a rich contralto voice. Mrs. Thompson's singing was highly complimented by a large and fashionable audience.

Final Arrangements Completed.

Final arrangements have been completed by the Bourbon Board of Control of the Equity Society for the handling, grading and pricing of the 1907 crop of tobacco now in the pool.

The board has framed a contract that will be satisfactory to all interests concerned, the farmer and grower the handler and bankers, who later may desire to finance the crop.

After much deliberation the board decided to adhere to the practice of last year and prize each crop so as to preserve its distinct individuality as to quality, color and fineness of leaf.

The board entered into a contract with Kenney Nichols to handle and prize one-half million pounds in Paris warehouses and with Booth & Judy for the same amount in warehouses in Millersburg.

The board will also engage reliable tobacco rehandlers at North Middletown and Centerville to prize one million pounds, the remainder of the crop aggregating two millions pounds to be retained by the growers and prized in their own barns.

The receiving of tobacco by the Paris and Millersburg warehouses has already begun, and will now roll in large quantities. The cost to the grower for redrying, grading and pricing will be $1.25 per one hundred pounds, to be paid for when the tobacco is finally sold.

Held Without Bail.

Beech Hargis, who murdered his father, James Hargis, in cold blood last Thursday, had his examining trial Monday morning at Jackson. While waiting for the trial to begin, the accused sat quietly behind a table, a faint smile playing around his firmly set lips and apparently oblivious of the calamity he had brought upon his house. Judge D. B. Redwine appeared as his attorney and made suggestion of bond which Judge Taulbee refused. It is said that Judge Hargis will provide that his estate shall be held in trust for his widow during her life and then to be continued in trust for the benefit of his two children, Mrs. Evelyn Hogg and Beech Hargis.

RELIGIOUS.

—The congregations of the First and Second Presbyterian churches of Paris, will hold union services Sunday, both morning and evening, at the Second Presbyterian church, corner Sixth and Pleasant streets. The pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Joseph S. Malone, will do the preaching. Morning subject, "Without God in the World."

—Elder Carey E. Morgan will fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning. Subject, "The Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures." At the evening hour the Knights of Pythias will hold their anniversary exercises. The address will be delivered by J. L. Earlywine.

HUMAN RACE AFFLICTED WITH QUEER DISEASE

Cooper Says Internal Parasites Cause Much
Suffering Everywhere.

The following remarkable statement was recently made by L. T. Cooper. It concerns the preparation which has been so widely discussed throughout the country during the past year, and has sold in such enormous quantities in leading cities:

"It is now a well-known fact that wherever I have introduced my New Discovery medicine, hundreds of people have brought internal parasites, or tapeworms, to me. In many cases these people did not know the nature of the parasite, and were consequently extremely nervous until I explained the matter to them. In some cities so many have had this experience that the public generally became alarmed. I take this opportunity of explaining what these creatures are, and what I have learned about them in the past."

"Tapeworms are much more common than would be supposed. I venture to say that ten per cent. of all chronic stomach trouble, or what is known as a 'rundown' condition, is caused by them. An individual may suffer for years with one of these great parasites and not be aware of it."

"Contrary to general belief, the appetite is not greatly increased—it only becomes irregular. There is a general feeling of faintness, however, and a gnawing sensation in the pit of the stomach."

"People afflicted with one of these parasites are nervous and depressed. Their chief sensation is one of languor, and they tire very easily. Lack of energy and ambition affect the body, and the mind becomes dull and sluggish. The memory becomes not so good, and the eyesight is generally poorer."

"The New Discovery, in freeing stomach and bowels of all impurities, seems to be fatal to these great worms, and almost immediately expels them from the system. I wish to assure anyone who has the experience just related with my preparation, that there is no cause for alarm in the matter, and that it will as a rule mean a speedy restoration to good health."

The Cooper medicines are a boon to stomach sufferers. We sell them.—Geo. S. Varden & Son.

Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colo., Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. feb

DRIVER ANTS.

The Way These Ferocious Little Insects Defy the Freshets.

There are certain ants that show wonderful intelligence, and the "driver ants" not only build boats, but launch them too. Only these boats are formed of their own bodies.

They are called "drivers" because of their ferocity. Nothing can stand before the attacks of these little creatures. Large pythons have been killed by them in a single night, while chickens, lizards and other animals in western Africa flee from them in terror. To protect themselves from the heat they erect arches, under which numerous armies of them pass in safety.

Sometimes the arch is made of grass and earth and is gummed together by some secretion, and again it is formed by the bodies of the larger ants, which hold themselves together by their strong nippers while the workers pass under them.

At certain times of the year freshets overflow the country inhabited by the "drivers," and it is then that these ants go to sea. The rain comes suddenly, and the walls of their houses are broken in by the flood; but, instead of coming to the surface in scattered hundreds and being swept off to destruction, out of the ruins rises a black ball that rides safely on the water and drifts away.

At the first warning of danger the little creatures run together and form a solid body of ants, the weaker in the center. Often this ball is larger than a common cricket ball, and in this way they float about until they lodge against some tree, upon the branches of which they are soon safe and sound.—Pearson's Weekly.

GOVERNMENT ANIMALS.

Branding Them Is Provided For by Army Regulations.

Whenever you see the letters "U. S." branded on the left fore shoulder of an animal, make up your mind at once that that beast is or was at one time the property of our rich old Uncle Sam.

Then again if you knew the key to the system of branding utilized by the quartermaster's department, United States army, you would in a moment be able to tell the organization of the army to which that animal was assigned immediately after purchase by the government.

Branding public animals is not a matter of choice, but is provided for by the army regulations, which direct that—

"Public animals shall upon the day received be branded with the letters 'U. S.' on the left fore shoulder. Horses assigned to organizations will also be branded on the hoof of one fore foot one and one-half inches below the coronet with the designation of the company. Branding irons of uniform size and design will be supplied by the quartermaster's department, letters 'U. S.' to be two inches in height, letters and numbers of hoof brands on the same line to be three-fourths of an inch high, the letter to precede the number and blocked so as to penetrate the hoof one-sixteenth of an inch. For example, the hoof brands on horses assigned to band, Ninth cavalry, would be Q29; to Troop A, Fifth cavalry, would be A5; to Company A, battalion of engineers, would be BEA."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Advanced Arithmetic.

Kenneth is the name of a good natured Washington lad who is as studious as any of his companions, but he is young yet and has not advanced very far in the grades of the public schools. The other evening he was visiting a boy friend who has laid his plans for serving in Uncle Sam's army in the future and contemplates graduating from West Point some day. The two were talking about mathematics when a young lady sought to test Kenneth's knowledge of arithmetic.

"If lemons are 23 cents a dozen," she asked him, "how much are cast iron lamp posts a piece?"

With a perfectly serious expression on his face Kenneth replied: "I don't know, miss. I haven't got that far in arithmetic yet."—Washington Star.

Opium From Lettuce.

A sort of opium is obtained from the common lettuce. The scientists give it a long name, which no doubt means something very learned and profound, and declare that they find important differences between the opium of the lettuce and the opium of the poppy, but for all practical purposes the one is identical with the other. Many a man who has eaten lettuce knows how sleepy it causes him to become an hour or so after dinner, and the older the lettuce the greater the sleepiness, for in mature lettuce the milk juice is well developed and all the properties of the opium are present.—London News.

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing hope to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Some Latest French Styles.

Grace Margaret Gould, the fashion expert, who has recently returned to this country from Paris, writes in the February Woman's Home Companion: "Striped materials continue right on being fashionable, and the woman who needs a gown and one which she can wear for a long time to come need have no hesitancy in selecting a striped silk or striped voile for her gown."

In planning an evening costume there are one or two things which it is wise that she bear in mind. The first is, short waist effects are the vogue. Now, if she can have but one evening gown, it is better to select something that is not too extreme. Let us take it for granted that she doesn't care for an Empire gown such as fashionable women are wearing in Paris and New York today. On the other hand, she doesn't wish to spend her money, or a new evening dress and does not have it reflect in a measure the new fashion tendencies.

In this case let her try the high Empire girdle, which will give her gown the fashionable short-waist look. Skirts are long and extremely close fitting over the hips. The trimmings is all toward the foot. Even such filmy materials as tulle and chiffon cloth are often made up with a band of velvet at the bottom. Entire deus of fillet net, strikingly embroidered in coarse silk flosses are the fashion as skirt trimmings, and when they are used in this way a touch of the same embroidery is introduced in the blouses. "Veiled effects are very fashionable, and the skirts on many of the latest evening gowns show very lovely changing effects. For example a skirt of pale blue silk or satin foundation, but just to give it an unusual little touch there will be another chiffon skirt between the outer one and the silk foundation, and this will not be of blue."

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Cure.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure-you quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee. feb

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. O. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

"In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists."

Suffering Everywhere.

The following remarkable statement was recently made by L. T. Cooper. It concerns the preparation which has been so widely discussed throughout the country during the past year, and has sold in such enormous quantities in leading cities:

"It is now a well-known fact that wherever I have introduced my New Discovery medicine, hundreds of people have brought internal parasites, or tapeworms, to me. In many cases these people did not know the nature of the parasite, and were consequently extremely nervous until I explained the matter to them. In some cities so many have had this experience that the public generally became alarmed. I take this opportunity of explaining what these creatures are, and what I have learned about them in the past. Tapeworms are much more common than would be supposed. I venture to say that ten per cent. of all chronic stomach trouble, or what is known as a 'rundown' condition, is caused by them. An individual may suffer for years with one of these great parasites and not be aware of it.

"Contrary to general belief, the appetite is not greatly increased—it only becomes irregular. There is a general feeling of faintness, however, and a gnawing sensation in the pit of the stomach.

"People afflicted with one of these parasites are nervous and depressed. Their chief sensation is one of languor, and they tire very easily. Lack of energy and ambition affect the body, and the mind becomes dull and sluggish. The memory becomes not so good, and the eyesight is generally poorer.

"The New Discovery, in freeing stomach and bowels of all impurities, seems to be fatal to these great worms, and almost immediately expels them from the system. I wish to assure anyone who has the experience just related with my preparation, that there is no cause for alarm in the matter, and that it will as a rule mean a speedy restoration to good health."

The Cooper medicines are a boon to stomach sufferers. We sell them.—Geo. S. Varden & Son.

Sitting on a High Hat.

"If I were to offer to wager that I could sit squarely on my silk hat without crushing it, you would take me up. I suppose," said a clubman to a fellow member. "Well, you would lose," he continued. "A good silk hat should support the weight of a man say 140 pounds without yielding, providing the weight is applied gradually and carefully. The way to do it is to place the hat on a smooth, strongly supported surface, crown downward, and lay a board across the rim, in the hollow. On this seat yourself steadily and slowly, and you will find the hat does not yield. Of course, a hat that has once been bent or broken will not do. Nor is the rule invariable. It applies only to good hats. Have I ever tried it? Yes; I have, but not on my own hat."—Philadelphia Record.

Eating Onions.

Persons with dropsical tendencies should eat onions frequently. This simple cure has proved effective in many cases. In one instance the patient had been given up by several physicians and only tried the onions to please a friend. She ate the onions just as she would an apple, taking a great many during the day.—Exchange.

On the other hand, she doesn't wish to spend her money on a new evening dress and does not have it reflected in a measure the new fashion tendencies."

"In this case let her try the high Empire girdle, which will give her gown the fashionable short-waist look. Skirts are long and extremely close fitting over the hips. The trimmings is all toward the foot. Even such filmy materials as tulle and chiffon cloth are often made up with a band of velvet at the bottom. Entre deux of flit net strikingly embroidered in coarse silk flosses are the fashion as skirt trimmings, and when they are used in this way a touch of the same embroidery is introduced in the blouses. Veiled effects are very fashionable, and the skirts on many of the latest evening gowns show very lovely changing effects. For example a skirt of pale blue silk or satin foundation, but just to give it an unusual little touch there will be another chiffon skirt between the outer one and the silk foundation, and this will not be of blue."

Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Cure.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure-you quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. O. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

ENGLISH JOCKEY CLUB.

Most Autocratic Governing Body in the World of Sport.

A writer in Fry's Magazine explains the origin and development of the Jockey club, the most powerful and autocratic governing body that is to be found in the whole world of sport. The Jockey club has an enormous power and is feared and respected by all who are subservient to it, and yet nobody ever elected it or gave it its authority.
But it is the ideal governing body for racing. One of its most notable achievements was the virtual "warning off" Newmarket heath, though not in so many words, of a Prince of Wales, he who was afterward George IV.

"His jockey, Sam Chifney the elder,
was accused of riding the horse Escape unfairly, and the Jockey club demanded that he should be expelled from the turf. But the prince believed that the accusation against Chifney was entirely wrong and unjust, and he determined to stand by him at any cost. Thereupon the three stewards of the club who were then in office were called upon to take action, and Sir Charles Bunbury, on behalf of them, intimated to his royal highness that if he retained Chifney in his service no gentleman could or would run against him."

Greatly incensed, he withdrew from the turf altogether and did not resume his patronage of it until nine years later.

THE FIREPLACE.

One Thing That Helps Most to Make a Home Homely.

This I say: Go back and pick up lost good habits—the omitted amenities of life. Especially put back into your house the fireplace. It is the one thing that helps most to make a home homely. Build it big and broad. Let there be no gimcracks of fancy woodwork anywhere near it. Let it be only brick or stone. Then let the hearth be broad and wide. Make it so large every way that you need never fear for a snapping coal. Away with mats, for they are combustible! But a stool—that is another thing. Here you can forget the stocks and the office and the store. Here you can dream of rest and peace. Here it is possible that some of you have Tom and Harry and Bessie about your knees. There is no better way to reconstitute the family.
It is the chief want of these modern days.

The world is never quite so independent or we quite so care free without a fire. There are vastness and lack of outline to a summer day. We get our feelings mixed up with the cosmos.
The fireplace narrows our lives somewhat, but it completes and unifies things. We are happy to be just a part of the little warm home circle.
Did anybody ever commit suicide who had a fireplace?—E. P. Powell in Outing Magazine.

Knocked Off the Gilt.

"Yes," one of the two women was saying, "I think I'll get for the drawing room those curtains I looked at last.
The dining room's all right as it is,
but the drawing room!"

"Now, will you listen to that?" exclaimed a man sitting near by in an undertone. "Her 'drawing room'! Why, say, she occupies a fire room flat just over mine and a duplicate of it! Whenever I get more than three people in my little parlor I feel like apologizing for crowding them. If she were to add a grand piano to her furniture I'll bet she couldn't open the door more than halfway."

"But I suppose she must get a lot of comfort out of talking about her 'drawing room,' especially when strangers are listening. You know some women are queer that way."—New York Globe.

The Game He Preferred.

At dinner recently several men were discussing the merits of different kinds of game. One preferred canvasback duck, another woodcock and still another thought a quail the most delicious article of food. The discussion and the dinner ended at about the same time.
"Well, Harry," said one of the men,
speaking to the waiter at his elbow,
"what kind of game do you like best?"
"Well, Mr. Jones, to be frank, almost any kind of game suits me, but what I like best is an American eagle served on a silver dollar."—New York Tribune.

Willing.

One evening the head of the household came home earlier than usual and was very hungry. He said to the maid,
"Please tell the cook to accelerate the dinner."

The maid brought back word to this effect: "If you please, sir, the cook says she hasn't any in the house, but if you can wait a little while she will send for some."

Useless.

"Dear, oh, dear," sighed Mr. Sallow-day, "I wish I knew some good way to acquire an appetite."

"Nonsense!" exclaimed his wife.
What do you want with an appetite?
It would only give you more dyspepsia."—Philadelphia Press.

Two Hairs.

"I begin to realize," said young Mr.
Kallow, "that I am no longer a mere youth now that I've got a little hair on my lip."

"Yes," said Miss Pert, "and I suppose in a month or so you'll have another one."—Exchange.

There Are Plenty Like Him.

"I wonder what has kept Jones poor?
He's always made a good salary."
"I know he's well paid, but he's one of the fellows who spend all their money trying to get something for nothing."—Detroit Free Press.

GOV. WILLSON CRITICISED.

Extract from Judge Barker's Speech Printed to Show Contrast With Governor's Utterance.

Under the headline "A Contrast," the Glasgow (Ky.) Times recently published the following:

"During a recent banquet in Louisville, Governor Willson and Judge Barker of the Court of Appeals, were called on for speeches. We call an extract from the utterances of each, and call attention to the entirely different spirit breathed by the Governor and the Judge of the Court of Appeals."

"Governor Willson said: 'Here are 2,000,000 people in Kentucky. How can we live together and protect every man's rights? It is only because we covenant with each other as a condition of living here that we will subscribe to and obey the rules of the community. That rule is the people's law and unless we all obey that law there is not one of us that is safe in life or liberty or prosperity or the pursuits of happiness.'

"It is an absolute condition of our safety, our happiness and our welfare, and therefore it is a crime to break the people's law or to encourage its being broken by any man or set of men. It is the covenant and the condition of our living together. Following the expression of Kipling, you might say, 'For the law is the strength of the people and the people the strength of the law.' I said a few evenings ago in the course of this banquet habit that seems to be growing on me, that it is the idea of our State seal, 'United we stand, divided we fall.' United in upholding the people's law, the strength of the people, the united action of 2,000,000 people. Breaking that and losing the covenant of the law, we divide these 2,000,000 people."

Breaking that and losing the covenant of the law, we divide these 2,000,000 with conflicting interests, and there is no safety and happiness for anyone."

Judge Barker said: "It is of course, beyond the scope of an after dinner speech to more than touch on these matters, but it may not be inappropriate to say that the civil and material progress of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries have been such that gigantic corporations, impossible in an earlier age, have grown up and by extension of the power of combination, an evil which grows by what it feeds on, greedy, cold and cruel rapacity is crushing out all individual effort among the children of men. On the other hand, and as a protest against the unlawful combination of capital we have the night rider and the barn burner making night hideous and threatening the very dissolution of civil society. These two sets of law-breakers are equally criminal and against them both the law should be enforced with equal rigor and impartiality. But it should not be forgotten that the night rider is the direct product of the illegal 'trust' and that it is more a crime to burn the tobacco barn of the trust magnate than it is to steal the tobacco of the farmer by unlawful combination. One is more spectacular than the other but has no greater moral turpitude. The farmer who cannot sell his tobacco because an illegal combination has strangled competition is a slave who works for a heartless master; and the man who cannot raise and sell his crop when and where and to whom he pleases because of plant-bed scraping, brand burning and personal violence is worse than a slave. What the anarchists is to the Russian autocracy which strangles its liberty, what the Puritans disguised as Indians and throwing English tea into Boston harbor were to taxation, without representation, that is the night rider to the combine which steals the produce of toil by stifling competition for its purchase."

The Times then comments as follows in the two speeches:

"Not a word from the Governor of Kentucky against the robberies of the Tobacco Trust. Not a sign of sympathy with the producer, who, for long years have been robbed by that same trust. Only a bare, cold, pitiless denunciation of law breaking—and Governor Willson has not yet discovered that the Tobacco Trust is a law-breaker. Only the night riders and the day riders draw the fire of the Chief Executive."

"We commend Judge Barker's speech to Governor Willson. He should read it, and ponder it. If the Tobacco Trust is a law-breaker—and Judge Barker declares it is—why does not Governor Willson demand that every Circuit Court in Kentucky shall indict it? Why should he not denounce the Tobacco Trust as unsparingly as he pours out his wrath upon the night riders and day riders?"

"Has Governor Willson of Kentucky ever uttered a disrespectful word against the Tobacco Trust?"

—Mrs. J. H. Campbell returned Monday after a three weeks' visit to her daughter, Mrs. Sagacy, of Lexington.

—Mr. T. E. Savage and daughter, Miss Mary, were guests of Mr. F. J. Savage, of Paris, several days this week.

—Messrs. W. G. McClintock and J. H. Hunter attended the Lexington horse sales Monday and Mr. O. M. Johnson Tuesday.

—Miss Louise Best, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Miller, for the past two weeks, returned to her home at Maysville, Monday.

—When you want daily papers call at the meat store of Proctor & Co. Leave order for any subscription you may desire and it will be promptly attended to.

—HIGH LINES.—The man from Kahn, who is well-known to the good dressers of Millersburg, will be with Corrington & Smedley Monday and Tuesday, February 17 and 18, 1908. Call in and let him make your Easter suit.

—Just received a car load best cedar shingles. PEALE COLLIER CO.

—Mr. Hugh Campbell received a telegram Monday announcing the death of his son-in-law, Mr. Harry Alaband, of Nicholasville. He had been sick but a few days with the grippe and his condition was not thought to be serious.

—Don't forget the entertainment at the Oprea House Saturday night. Shunaspri, the famous Indian, is a novel entertainment, the like of which was never seen here before. He carries with him a vocalist, violinist and reader. He has been quite a fad in the East. Don't fail to see him as the entertainment is given by the alumnae of M. F. C.

—Mr. Puckett died Sunday and was buried Monday in the Millersburg cemetery. For several weeks the family has resided in the house of W. N. Clark. He had been sick for several days, but being a comparative stranger nothing was known of his residence until after his death, and being in distressing circumstances the good people responded liberally to make the family comfortable after their wants were made known.

—The ground for the foundation of the new Millersburg Female College building was laid off Tuesday afternoon. Work will begin as soon as material can be put on the grounds and the final contracts adjusted. Dr. W. M. Miller has been elected by the building committee as treasurer. As soon as work begins money will be needed to meet the expenses. All persons having subscribed to the College Fund are hereby urged to pay the proportion of their subscription now due, to Dr. W. M. Miller or leave same to his credit at the Farmers or Exchange Bank.

—Miss Nannie Clark, of Sharpsburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Albert Moffitt.

—Mr. W. E. Butler left Wednesday for a weeks' visit to relatives at Lexington and Nicholasville.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Penn Redmon returned Wednesday from New Orleans and other Southern cities, where they have been since their marriage.

—Mr. J. J. Peed sold his farm consisting of 250 acres two miles South of town on the Maysville pike Wednesday afternoon to Mr. Henry Letton, of near Carlisle, at $115 per acre. Mr. Peed bought this place in 1889 from the heirs of the late Jesse Boulden at $85 per acre. Possession will be given March 1. Mr. Peed and family will move to town for the present.

DEATHS.

WILETT.

—The body of the late Dr. W. H. Willett, who died at Harrison O., arrived yesterday on the 11 o'clock a. m. Louisville & Nashville train, the interment taking place in the cemetery at Clintonville, with a short funeral service by Elder S. W. Willis. Before the departure of the body, the Masonic order, of which the deceased was a member, held appropriate services.

The remains were accompanied by H. C. Willett, a son of the deceased, who will be the guest for several days of his uncle, Mr. A. Willett.

Street Lighting

Notice is hereby given that the Mayor and Board of Council of the City of Paris, Ky., will, on Thursday, February 27, '08, receive sealed bids for furnishing lights for the streets of said City for a period of two years, beginning March 1st, 1908. Each gas light bid for must be of not less than fifty candle power, and each arc light bid for must be of not less than two thousand candle power. The Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Those desiring to bid may do so as follows:

For furnishing gas for not less than 100, for not less 125, for not less than 135, for not less than 140, for not less than 150, for not less than 165, for not less than 175, for not less than 200 gas posts.

For furnishing not less than 20, for not less than 25, for not less than 30, for not less than 35, for not less than 40, for not less than 45, for not less than 50, for not less than 75, for not less than 85 for not less than 100 arc lights.

For the small 60 p. c. lights for not less than 35, 45, 55, 65, 75, 85, 95, 105, 115, 125, 135.

All lights to burn every night from sunset until sunrise, bidders on both gas and arc lights to keep same in repair, furnishing all things necessary for that purpose.

Said gas posts and arc lights to be placed at points within the city designated by the City Council, and it is further provided that the city shall have the right to have any gas or arc light moved once without expense to said city.

Whenever the number of lights shall be increased to such an extent as to reach one of the numbers designated above, then the price paid for same shall be the amount bid for furnishing that number of lights.

Interesting to Elks.

Members of the Order of Elks all over the country are interested in a decision handed down Tuesday by Chancellor Heiskell in the Circuit Court, at Memphis, Tenn., making permanent an injunction granted September last which will prohibit negroes from wearing copies of Elk pins, buttons, etc., or using the ritual of the order. The Memphis lodge instituted a test case. Telegrams of congratulation were received from many sections. It was maintained that the ritual had been disclosed to a negro Pullman porter. The order has been styled "Improved Elks."
